A Message from Rabbi Bloch

The Blessing of the Seventh Day

If you were asked to recite the Ten Commandments, would you be able? Could you recite them in order? If not, which ones stand out most in your mind? If you were the editor of the Torah, would you deem the Ten Commandments most important? Would there be any that you would take out? Would there be any that you would add?

One of the assignments that I often give my students is to study the Ten Commandments as they are written in the Torah, and then to create their own version. I am always amazed and impressed by what they write. They come up with things such as: 1) Take care of one another 2) Don't talk bad about others 3) Give to those less fortunate 4) Respect each other and 5) Cherish your family--- just to name a few. Often the students' lists contain some of the most recognized of the Ten Commandments, such as: Don't steal and Don't murder. It is always interesting to me that while our students' versions of the Ten Commandments don't necessarily correspond to the Ten Commandments in the Torah, they often include rules found in the other 613 commandments that Jews are to follow. There is only one commandment that I never see in a student's Ten Commandment list. That would be the fourth, "Remember the Sabbath Day and keep it Holy." I am not surprised. I am not sure it would be remembered by most adults, let alone teenagers. In fact, several years ago, there was a nationwide poll rating the commandments in order of significance and this commandment, to keep the Sabbath, was put at the very bottom.

The Sabbath, unfortunately, has become trivial in a time when I believe we need it the most. Our society has become inundated with technologically advanced items, and we are always moving from place to place. We never have the opportunity to slow down and just breathe. Every week in our siddur we read a prayer that many of us are familiar with from the commonly sung song, v'shamru. This prayer teaches us that Shabbat is ours and we are to guard it, cherish it, and celebrate it. Every week we have the opportunity to celebrate time and learn that our time here on earth is sacred. We have the opportunity to pause, to sit, and to just be. We are given the possibility for renewal, growth, and learning. And we have one of life's greatest blessings, the opportunity to spend time with our families, our communities, and G-d.

As we approach the holiday of Shavuot this coming weekend, and again celebrate the receiving of the Ten Commandments, let us remember the gift of the fourth commandment. Let us learn to guard it so that we will always know the blessing of the seventh day, Shabbat. As Rabbi Dov Peretz Elkins teaches:

Six days shall you be a workaholic; on the seventh day, shall you join the serene company of human beings.
Six days shall you take orders from your boss; on the seventh day, shall you be master/mistress of your own life.
Six days shall you toil in the market; on the seventh day, shall you detach from money matters.
Six days shall you create, drive, create, invent, push, drive; on the seventh day, shall you reflect.
Six days shall you be the perfect success; on the seventh day, shall you remember that not everything is in your power.
Six days shall you be a miserable failure; on the seventh day, shall you be on top of the world.
Six days shall you enjoy the blessings of work; on the seventh day, shall you understand that being is as important as doing.

President's Message

Happy June TDD family!

Just finally catching my breath after a wildly successful Gala, a joyous Installation ceremony for Rabbi Bloch, B'nai Mitzvah, and Confirmation. Thank you to so many of you that worked so hard in planning these events and for your generosity contributing to fund raising efforts.

The Temple's annual meeting will be held Tuesday, June 7 at 7:00 pm. We will present a summary of the current fiscal year to date (July 1, 2021 - June 30, 2022) and spend some time talking about some exciting changes coming ahead for Temple Dor Dorim. We will give out some awards to some Temple members that have given of themselves and deserve some recognition. Refreshments will be served, please make the effort to attend, to celebrate the completion of the fiscal year and to spend time together back in our building. Please RSVP to Faye Kotler.

Rabbi Norman Lipson, Temple Dor Dorim's Rabbi Emeritus, celebrates the 50th anniversary of his ordination as a Rabbi. We are incredibly grateful to Rabbi Lipson for his continued guidance and involvement at TDD. Please reach out to him and wish him Mazal Tov! We will be honoring Rabbi Lipson at our Shabbat Evening Service on Friday, September 9, 2022. Please look for more information.

Stay healthy and safe and thank you for your membership and community building at Temple Dor Dorim.

Mazal Tov, Jamie Mafdali!

We are pleased to announce that our very own Jamie Mafdali has been selected to be one of about 40 people to participate in the inaugural class of the Maccabi Educator Fellowship!

In partnership with the iCenter, a beacon of Israel education, Jamie has been learning with this cohort since January and together they will enhance and deepen the educational experiences of the Maccabi USA athletes during the 21st Maccabiah in Israel this July. Jamie and the other educators will use the experiences the athletes have to make connections and create their own relationships with Israel and their home communities. We wish Jamie a Nesiah Tovah, a safe journey.

Also, let's get ready for 2023 in Broward County!

The JCC Maccabi Games and Access, hosted by the David Posnack JCC, returns August 6-11, 2023. Let's join together as a community to support this endeavor. Contact Jamie who will share details and opportunities to get involved once they are available.

May You protect us on our leaving and on our return, and rescue us from any harm, and may You bless the work of our hands, and may our deeds merit honor for You.

Praise to You, Adonai, Protector of Israel.

Prayer for Campers

May the one who blessed our ancestors, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Sara, Rebecca, Rachel and Leah bless all of these campers as they go off to summer camp.

May You guide them in peace.

May their journey this summer be beautiful, filled with shira, song, rikud, dance, omanut, art, simcha, happiness, s'chiya, swimming, ruach, spirit, and chaverut, friendship.

May they give and receive many lanyards and friendship bracelets, hike to the most inspiring places, and stay up late laughing with friends.

May they experience great challenges and succeed in overcoming them and also learn from their struggles.

May they be partners in creating a kehillah kedoshah, a sacred community of love and friendship and learning.

And may they return to this community, changed for the better while very much the same—bringing with them new rituals, songs and prayers.

May You help them grow in mind and heart, drawing them closer to You and to a life of Torah and ma'asim tovim, good deeds.

Empty Nesters Message

Hi Nesters and Friends,

As we look forward to June, the final month of TDD's fiscal year, we take a glance back to May, an exciting month, when we celebrated both something "Old" and something "New." The something old was our Synagogue's 24th Anniversary Gala, which we have been unable to celebrate together since March 2019. It was as "Gala" as any celebration could be with strong drinks, delicious food, loud music, wonderful auction items and, most importantly (next to the much needed revenue) was the enthusiastic, youngish crowd of attendees. Young and old, generation to generation, we all drank, ate and danced (except me) the night away. Thank you to the committee, chaired by Rachel DiDio, TDD staff and Scott Kushner and Palm Caterers for making this a great Fun and Fund-raising evening!

This was followed with something new the next weekend, as we celebrated the (delayed) Installation of our popular Senior Rabbi, Marci R. Bloch. Although in the position for the past 2 Pandemic years, this was the first time to get our congregation together at Shul and hold a meaningful and beautiful Shabbat Service with over 10 clergy, both Rabbis and Cantors, participating. The service was followed with a special tasty Oneg Shabbat. Then Saturday morning there was Torah Study with Rabbi Joel Soffin followed by a Bagel and Nosh, and closed on Sunday with a Mini Mitzvot of collecting footwear for charity, preparing snack bags and a blood drive. Thank goodness our Rabbi is now official!

As covered in my May Newsletter article, the Empty Nesters' year was, at best, bitter sweet as we held many events on Zoom with 1 Continental Breakfast program, 1 Chanukah Brunch program and our Nesters' October Kickoff and March (early) Closing Dinners. Fortunately, we were able to have most of our scheduled Lunch and Learn programs with Rabbi Bloch. With our membership reduced the past 2 years from 107 to 77 and participation to a 33% average, partially due to Covid, it is primarily reflective of our growing average age, which is now in the 80's and growing. Additionally, with my stepping down as President, we have no one from our current Empty Nesters, as constituted, to step up and assume the leadership role.

The aging trend can only be reversed by the addition of 50, 60 and 70 year olds to the group. Our Synagogue has such an assemblage on-board, requiring only a few of their influential members to take the leadership reins and create this new "Schmoozers," TDD's 50-plus Social Auxiliary. Going forward, this auxiliary is badly needed at TDD to add to the wonderful membership incentives we currently offer. At any rate, I will absolutely be available to assist as an active participant with the new leadership of our senior auxiliary.

In the May Newsletter, I thanked all those who provided the love and support shown to Alice and me during the past 17 years. I loved every minute of those years and will miss the interaction with the many individuals the position provided. However, I am far from finished with my volunteering and activities at TDD. I plan to remain on the Finance Committee and will also ensure the continuation of the Lunch and Learn with Rabbi Bloch monthly program, until it returns to the newly constituted senior auxiliary.

Finally, for you to honor for happy occasions, or memorialize for those sad occasions, the "Alice and Gary Holtzman Empty Nesters Tzedakah Fund" is alive, well and available for your donations. The fund continues to support Temple Dor Dorim programs including: Education, Youth, Ritual and all Auxiliaries.

Sadly, after writing monthly articles for the Empty Nesters since 2003 during Lee Redstone's Presidency, this will be my final column. However, I would expect to continue with emails every so often. Until then...

Kol Tuv,
Gary

Sisterhood Message

Happy Summer TDD Family!

We hope your plans are taking you on amazing adventures and treasured quality time with family. We certainly ended the year on a high note - the Gala was ELECTRIC!! It was so wonderful to come back together as a community, raise vital funds for our Temple, and truly appreciate all that this night represented. We hope you reconnected with friends, had some delicious food courtesy of Palm Caterers, enjoyed the entertainment provided by Galaxy Productions, and maybe even walked away a winner of an amazing auction item. Once again, the Gala was a beautiful representation of what makes Temple Dor Dorim special as all generations came together with immense love for each other and our Temple. Thank you to the Sisterhood and the Gala committee for your tireless efforts in making this evening a reality. We can't wait for next year!

As we reflect on the phenomenal events the Sisterhood hosted this year, many organized by Barbara Davis and Megan Greenwald, we are excited to announce that they will be taking over as the next co-Presidents of Sisterhood. Congratulations to Barbara & Megan! We are so excited about the future of Sisterhood!

During the summer we are actively planning our calendar of events. If you are interested in getting involved in Sisterhood or have any suggestions, we are always happy to hear them. We wish everyone a wonderful summer and look forward to seeing you soon.

With Love,

Your Sisterhood Sisters

Leadership Development Message

The development of lay temple leadership is the life's blood in the continuing success of any synagogue. Without new people with new energy and new ideas, growth becomes stilted. Here at TDD, we have been so fortunate through the years to attract talented, interested and motivated people to lead our Temple. The last three Leadership Development groups provided wonderful new lay leadership for our Temple. From positions on the Board of Trustees to work on Brotherhood, Sisterhood and Empty Nester Boards to positions on various committees – we have been able to continue the work of our Temple – and not even COVID could stop us!

The Leadership Development Program in 2020 was held in person and was completed a just a few days prior to the shutdown. However, those people were not able to be honored by our congregation. The Leadership Development Programs in 2021 and 2022 were conducted solely on Zoom. I am so proud of these folks who “hung in there” during the worst of times.

We will be honoring all three groups at our June 3, 2022 Leadership Shabbat Service. It is my pleasure to congratulate the following people: Leadership 2020: Brooke Alweiss, Dan Bagner, Stephanie Farbman, Josh Feinberg, Joe Judkowitz, Dean Fishman, Shaun Malvin, Ronnie Morrison, Wendy Schepke, Gary Sonnenfeld, Ron Trust, and Helene Weiss. Leadership 2021: Larry Bernstein, Nina Bernstein, Eric Branch, Sharon Branch, Barbara Davis, Meagan Greenwald, Krystin Lechin, Michel Victor, Susan Victor, Alex Zenerovitz and Nicole Zenerovitz. Leadership 2022: Rachel Ben-David, Crystal Cooper, Amy Livingstone, Melinda Payan, Jessica Stillman and Adriana Toyber.

It was such a pleasure to work with all of you. Thank you for all you have done, are doing and will do to make Temple Dor Dorim the best it can be!

Our Leadership Development group for 2023 will be starting in the Fall. If you are interested in joining the group or just want some more details, please contact Iris Kauffman at iriskauff@aol.com.
