A Message from Rabbi Bloch

Dear TDD,

It was the “Birthday of the Trees.” That’s what I remember learning when I was little about the holiday of Tu B’Shevat - also known as the 15th of the Hebrew month of Shevat. It was a fun holiday -- a celebratory day for children. We sang Debbie Friedman’s famous song “Trees are Blowing in the Wind” and learned about the connection of trees to the land of Israel.

If you ask many Jewish adults today, either they never have heard of this holiday, don’t remember it, or somehow still associate it as a holiday for children. And it’s not uncommon that we teach our Jewish holidays and rituals on a child-like level, but usually when we become older we learn the holidays in a more adult fashion. What is it about the holiday of Tu B’Shevat that still leaves us thinking it’s a children’s holiday when, in actuality, there is a great deal of depth to it.

It actually has its origins in the Mishnah as one of the four new years in the Jewish calendar and later became observed during the Middle Ages with a seder honoring the seven species of Israel. Today, for many, it has become known as an ecological awareness day.

Lately, I have been thinking a lot about a prayer that one of the most famous Chassidic Rabbis, Rabbi Nachman of Braslov, wrote. It was about being able to go outside each day, stand among the trees and grass and all growing things and enter into prayer. It wasn’t about praying with a minyan. It wasn’t about praying in the sanctuary with a prayerbook. It was about praying alone and asking for the powers of the earth to lift us and to energize our prayers. This form of praying was called hitbodedut (seclusion) and it was urged as daily practice to talk openly with God.

Talking to God for many sounds scary let alone outside in the trees. But I dare you to try it. I dare you to begin a practice of getting closer to God. For some of us, we don’t know what that would mean. So, like Rabbi Nachman of Braslov, I’ll ask you to go outside alone and take in the gifts of God’s creations that are all around us. Look at the sky, smell a flower, listen to the birds, or feel the wind on your face and just say thank you. And if you need something to say to get you started praying, here’s Rav Nachman’s prayer:

*Grant me the ability to be alone;
may it be my custom to go outdoors each day among the trees and grass – among all growing things and there may I be alone, and enter into prayer
May I express everything in my heart, and may all the foliage of the field – all grasses, trees, and plants – awake at my coming, to send the powers of their life into my prayer so that my prayer is made whole through the life and spirit of all growing things, which are made as one
May I then pour out the prayers of my heart before the universe like water
May I lift up my hands in reverence, on my behalf, and that of all living beings.*

President's Message

Dear Temple Dor Dorim Family,

I don't know about you, but I can't believe it's already February. Early February brings Tu B'Shevat which many associate with planting trees. In honor of Tu B'Shevat, I wanted to share some words of wisdom I found online appropriately titled "Advice from a Tree":

- Stand Tall and Proud
- Remember Your Roots
- Go out on a Limb

A HUGE thank you to everyone who sponsored, planned, or attended any of our many events in January. We had some new events and some returning events and they were all not to be missed. The Temple calendar is full, and we should stand tall and proud knowing that because of each one of us Temple Dor Dorim is thriving! If you couldn't attend Stacey Nowack's presentation of The Auschwitz Album, I encourage you to reach out to her to learn more. Stacey gave us faces and names and we will continue to remember our roots. We are so very lucky to have Stacey as our Holocaust Educator at Temple Dor Dorim.

If you didn't attend any events this past month, I challenge you to go out on a limb and attend something in February. We have so many fun and interesting things happening this month at Temple. TDD is committed to providing something for everyone. I'm confident that if you show up, you'll have fun. If you don't see something you're interested in, don't hesitate to reach out to me or any of our TDD staff or board members. We are always looking for new ideas and events.

With Gratitude,

Rachel DiDio

Executive Director's Message

Dear Temple Dor Dorim,

February is the month of showing someone special you love how much you care. Perhaps this year will include the love of your Temple Dor Dorim Community. Many exciting programs have been held at the Temple the last month from Tot Frozen Shabbat and Israel Solidarity to ECC Snow Day and our Auxiliary Tailgate Party as well as many programs in between. We had over 200 people in attendance at our extra special program by Stacey Nowack - Holocaust Remembrance Day, The Auschwitz Album. This was one of the best programs I have seen on the Holocaust and Stacey was extremely knowledgeable and moving.

We have a Membership committee under the steady leadership of Amy Kotlar. We have had several meetings and are looking at ways to not only obtain new members, but also get long term members who have not been here in a while or have dropped out to come back to one of our wonderful programs. Thank you, Amy, for taking on this critical position.

Barbara Davis and Megan Greenwald are planning an amazing Gala: Welcome to the Jungle! This is our largest and most critical fundraising event of the year and will take place on April 29! It is not to be missed.

This year's Gala is honoring our 2020 Rabbi Norman S. Lipson Generations Recipients, Phyllis and Lenny Miller, and the 2023 Rabbi Norman S. Lipson Generations Recipient, Sheila Woldenberg, for her stellar 25-year career at Temple Dor Dorim. There are so many ways to help honor them and to ensure the Gala is a big financial success. This Gala is critical in ensuring we have extra funds for innovative programming, special events, and maintaining our beautiful facility. If you are not attending many of our events, you are missing out. We have something for everyone!! Check out the newsletter.

We are about to begin several very exciting repairs that will really make the Temple look new, fresh and inviting. Repair of the hole in the entrance to our driveway began at the end of January. This will take a couple of weeks and during this time, we will need to use the other two entrances to our parking lot. After this project is complete, we will be repaving and restriping our parking lot and our building will be power washed. The Temple will really look fantastic!

One of my major focuses every month is to review the safety of the building, both inside and out. I hope you have seen some of the more visible additions like more guards and request for IDs. We have a professional security company coming to walk around our building again this February who will help to prioritize the needed changes to ensure everyone's safety.

My door is always open to hear new ideas on how I can help you experience Temple Dor Dorim in your own special way.

David Pasternack

Mazel Tov to our Bar Mitzvah

Benjamin Liss will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah on February 4, 2023. Benjamin is currently a 7th grader at Walter C. Young Middle School, where he plays violin for the orchestra, saxophone for the band and jazz band, and is representing the school as an All-County Orchestra member. Benjamin is also a competitive swimmer with Team SoFlo and was recently selected to participate in the 2023 Maccabi Games, hosted in Fort Lauderdale.

When he does have a free moment, Ben enjoys rooting for the Carolina Panthers, playing PlayStation, being active outside with his brother, Samuel, and their friends, or just cuddling and watching a movie with one of the many pets in his house.

Benjamin celebrates this day with his family as well as friends from school, swim, Religious School, and especially Camp Coleman. He is thankful to all who provided guidance and support on his journey, including Rabbi Bloch, Cantorial Soloist Robin Koota, Mr. Neil Marcus, Ms. Morah Mali, Ms. Jamie Mafдали and Ms. Jessica Smiley.

Mazel Tov to our Bar Mitzvah

It is with great joy that we celebrate the B'nai Mitzvah of Dylan and Mattingly Zonis at Temple Dor Dorim on February 11, 2023. It is an honor to be called to the Torah at the Temple where they began their Judaic studies at the ECC program. Dylan has waited patiently for his sister to be of age to be called to the Torah so that they could share this experience together. Both children have worked hard over the last few years at Temple Beth Torah in New York and now here, at Temple Dor Dorim.

Dylan is overall a well-rounded, hardworking student with a talent in the arts and math. He plays the trumpet and enjoys recreational tennis and soccer. Dylan enjoys trying new cuisines and is always up for a trip to the happiest place on earth.

Mattingly is also overall a well-rounded, passionate student with talents in the arts and English. She loves to act and sing. Mattingly enjoys riding horses on the weekends and has a true passion for animal rights.

A special thanks to Mora Irit and Mr. Neil for their dedication to preparing the children. Thank you to Miss Jamie for welcoming the children back into the Florida community. We are grateful for Rabbi Weisenberg and Rabbi Bloch for their commitment to teaching Torah. Last but not least, thank you to Rabbi Lipson, Sheila Woldenberg and Faye Kotler for beginning us on this journey.

Mazel Tov! Mom and Dad are very proud of the perseverance and patience you both have demonstrated throughout your years of study. May you both be blessed with Shalom.

Legacy Society Message

Happy Tu B'Shevat from the TDD Legacy Society

Early Zionist settlers to Israel began planting new trees not only to restore the ecology of ancient Israel, but as a symbol of renewed growth of the Jewish people returning to their ancestral homeland.

For us, members of the Temple Dor Dorim Legacy Society, the meaning of Tu B'Shevat is symbolized by the two pictures below. The planting of a new tree by a single individual and its growth, decades later, providing shade and sustenance for the whole community. On Shabbat evening, February 3, the Legacy Society, together with the Empty Nesters of TDD, will celebrate a Tu B'Shevat Seder where we will honor those who have made a commitment to leave a gift for Temple Dor Dorim in their wills or estate plans. Each gift, along with many others, will grow to a sizeable endowment fund that will provide income for TDD in the decades to come – for scholarships, dues assistance, educational programming and for any future emergencies that may arise. We invite all members of the Temple Dor Dorim congregation to join us in helping to insure a safe, secure and productive future for our synagogue.

Robert Ennis & Stephen Schwartz, TDDLS Co-Chairs

Thank you to all of our Legacy Society Members for their help and participation during this past year!

Empty Nesters Message

Dear Empty Nesters and Friends,

It is surprising how fast this year is going. We enjoyed our Lunch & Learn last month and are looking forward to our February events.

On Friday, February 3 at 6:00 pm, there will be our much looked forward to First Friday Family Shabbat Dinner followed by a Tu B'Shevat Seder and Legacy Shabbat Service. On a personal note, I remember fondly eight years ago at the Tu B'Shevat Seder when Carol and I celebrated the baby naming of our darling granddaughter, Eden. It was such a special night! Be sure to put this date on your calendar. You won't be sorry! Please see the flyer on page 8 for more information and register at dordorim.org/FFFS.

On February 8, Rabbi Bloch will lead the Lunch and Learn at the Sheraton Twin House. Please be sure to reserve your place for both these functions. Please RSVP to me for this event.

We presently have 76 members of our Empty Nesters group and have room for many, many more. If anyone has an idea or a suggestion for a function that we can add to our already packed calendar, please let me know. We are always open to members' ideas. You can contact me at wallyberman1@aol.com.

Sincerely,

Wally Berman

Sisterhood Message

Hello Sisterhood Sisters,

Sisterhood is so proud to be a part of such an amazing event as the 2nd Annual Co-Auxiliary Tailgate. It is true that when we come together, magic happens. What an amazing turnout once again! It was so much fun seeing members from every auxiliary come out to eat, roast s'mores, play games, and of course buy Sisterhood's Super Bowl Squares. It's not too late to buy squares. Please contact meganggreenwald1@gmail.com to get in on the action. Good luck to everyone that bought a square!

The Sisterhood Book Club continues to thrive. The group meets via zoom on the last Wednesday of the month (with changes if there are vacations or holidays.) Contact Iris Kauffman at iriskauff@aol.com if you would like more information.

When registering for any of our events this year, please consider donating to our Social Action: Shabbat on Wheels. We deliver dinners to Temple families when they need it most – whether it be illness, bereavement, or financial distress. If you know of a family in need of a Shabbat meal, contact Ronni Morrison at ronni.morrison@gmail.com or Faye Kotler at fkotler@templedordorim.org.

Stay tuned for more events coming in the spring.

Love your Sisterhood Sisters,

Barbara Davis and Megan Greenwald
