A Message from Rabbi Bloch

Dear TDD,

Since I was a child, I have always loved Sukkot. I love the connection to the earth and that it's the only mitzvah we perform that can completely envelop us. I love that it reminds us that life is fragile and our time in this world is temporary. But one of my favorite teachings about the holiday of Sukkot is that we are reminded of the mitzvah of hachnasat orchim – welcoming guests. One beautiful tradition that adds depth and meaning to our Sukkot experience is inviting Ushpizin, special guests, into our sukkot (sukkahs).

The term "Ushpizin" originates from the Aramaic word for guests or visitors. According to Jewish tradition, during each night of Sukkot, we symbolically welcome esteemed guests into our sukkah. These guests include both divine and human figures who have significant historical and spiritual relevance. The divine figures are: Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Moses, Aaron, and David. Thankfully, many practices today also include women such as Sarah, Miriam, Deborah, Hannah, Abigail, Hulda, and Esther.

In addition to the divine guests, we can also invite individuals from our own lives who inspire us and embody traits we admire. These could include: family members (those who are living and those who have passed away but continue to influence our lives), role models, and friends and neighbors (those who bring joy, support, and unity to our lives).

Inviting these Ushpizin into our sukkot not only symbolizes our desire to connect with the divine, but also reflects our commitment to fostering positive relationships and building a sense of community. By welcoming these esteemed guests, we create an atmosphere of hospitality, friendship, and inclusivity.

It is customary to mention the names of the Ushpizin. As we do so, we evoke their qualities and strive to embody them throughout the holiday and beyond. Similarly, when we invite human guests, we have the opportunity to share stories, exchange wisdom, and strengthen the bonds that unite us as a community.

As we celebrate Sukkot this year, let us remember the traditional and meaningful practice of inviting Ushpizin into our sukkot. May our guests inspire us to fill our homes with love and joy throughout this holiday and the entire year.

From my home to yours, Chag Sameach,

Rabbi Marci R. Bloch

President's Message

Dear TDD Family,

The beginning of October means Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur are now behind us. I hope you all had an opportunity to reflect on the past and are now focused on the future.

As I reflected over the past year, I was amazed at what we've accomplished and the growth we've seen. Our Early Childhood Center is at capacity with over 200 students enrolled, our camp had over 250 campers this past summer, and we've grown in membership units.

Now that I am focused on the future, I'd like to take this opportunity to ask for your support of Temple Dor Dorim and a donation to our High Holy Day appeal – Shelanu - which means 'Ours'. Temple Dor Dorim is more than a place of worship. It is our home, it belongs to us, and it is our responsibility to ensure Temple Dor Dorim is here for generations to come. Member engagement is strong, and we must capitalize on our success and invest in our future. Our lives are better because of Temple Dor Dorim.

Please use tdd.shulcloud.com/form/appeal or reach out to Faye Kotler to make your donation. Thank you to the many that have already donated.

We continue to be busy at TDD so please check out the rest of the newsletter for all the upcoming events. Temple Dor Dorim prides itself on offering something for everyone. Thank you to our staff for all their hard work on planning our fabulous programming. Our staff continues to work hard to coordinate in-person and virtual activities. If you have the chance, please thank our staff for their dedication.

With Gratitude,

Rachel DiDio
Temple President

Executive Director's Message

Dear Temple Dor Dorim,

As we are in the midst many Jewish holidays, it truly is a mixture of reflection, soul searching and celebration. This time of year makes me think back on my growing up years in Connecticut. All the women for the High Holy Days took their mink stoles out of storage and wore them with a new outfit to Temple. The weather didn't matter, it was a fashion show for sure.

It was great seeing so many of you as you came into the Temple with your families. I hope you noticed the fresh painting on the exterior of the building, the repaved parking lot, and polished the floors; just to name a few things. We still have much to be done on this 25-year-old building.

One of our largest projects is to reduce all the water around the outside of the building including behind the sanctuary which many call Lake Lipson. This has become more important as the rains have become much heavier and more frequent. We must keep the water out of the building which can cause a lot of damage if it gets in. We have hired a civil engineer to do a survey and make recommendations regarding drainage and proper grading of the property. This will be a very expensive and long process, but we have no choice. I have a great team helping me: Mara Mittentag, Peter Shapiro, and Bob Ennis. We are also establishing a five-year capital building budget, so we are not surprised by unplanned building expenses. More details to come.

We were fortunate to win a $150,000 State of Florida Security Grant. With the grant partnership of Debbie Ring and Jonny Konig, we submitted a grant for a major new security camera system which will be all over the building replacing our older antiquated one. This will be a major upgrade over the next six months.

Much more work is needed on our Temple, our home. Our largest fundraiser every year is the HHD campaign. This year's campaign is called Shelanu meaning "ours." The Temple is ours and we must support it and keep it in shape for ourselves to enjoy as much as future generations. We are $35,000 under our goal right now which we have until the end of this calendar year to achieve. This goal is nowhere near close to the one million dollars it takes annually to keep up the building. So please, as always, give generously to our HHD campaign. If you have given already thank you so much. Quite frankly, we need these funds.

Another positive of keeping up the building is being able to have room rentals when not in use. We have already had room rentals this year, most recently to the Weston Rotary Club for their annual Food and Wine Show. We had over 500 people in our building for this amazing event. The event was so amazing, I even joined the Rotary Club! A special thanks to Jacqueline Gillman who I loved working with on this project and brought it to TDD. We will be looking for other appt rental opportunities and within a few years I hope this becomes a very successful revenue stream for us.

If ever I can do anything for any of you, I am here.

Hineini,

David Pasternack

Empty Nesters Message

Hi Empty Nesters,

We just returned from Temple after participating in what can only be called a spiritually uplifting Yom Kippur service with our Dor Dorim family. Carol and I shared Break Fast with so many of our friends. Our hearts and our stomachs are full. We have much to "digest." Rabbi Bloch, your words are always inspirational, but this year they struck a super-positive tone. We have all been through so much, in one way or another. We have had to reach down deep into our heart and soul to find strength for life's challenges. Your message of hope, healing and positivity came through loud and clear.

On that note, the melodic chanting and singing of Cantor Kruk, Cantorial Soloist Robin Koota and the Generations Choir filled the sanctuary and our hearts with joy, nostalgia and genuine spirituality.

Oh my, this is starting to sound like a fan letter. I guess it is! Dor Dorim is the special place it is due to the people who make sure it functions at the highest level. I am so proud and thankful to everyone who had a hand in the beautiful High Holy Day Services for 5784. People always complain that the holidays are too late, too early, etc. This year...they were JUST RIGHT!!

Now, after such a spectacular beginning...what's next? Sukkot and Simchat Torah. Stay in the spiritual mode and join us for Simchat Torah on Friday, October 6 at 5:30 pm! See page 9 for all the information.

October brings us this years first Lunch and Learn with Rabbi Bloch at the Palms on October 18 at 11:30 am. The cost remains $20 per person and Rabbi Bloch promises a topical issue that will get your brain revved up. Please contact Gary Holtzman to RSVP.

On Sunday, October 29, join us for the Empty Nesters Kick-Off Dinner at 5:30 pm at Temple Dor Dorim. Delicious dinner, special musical entertainment and the definite feeling of camaraderie are on the menu. The cost is $50 per person. Please contact Jill in the Temple office for payment.

Please take this opportunity to join our Empty Nesters Group. Each one of you is a piece to the puzzle and we won't be complete without you! Membership is only $18 per person! Contact me or Jill in the Temple office.

Sincerely,

Wally Berman
Empty Nesters President

Leadership Development Message

TDD Family,

The Leadership Class of 2024 will be starting soon! Are you interested in how our Temple "works?" Do you want to know more about all that is going on within it? Are you curious as to what it takes to be a Temple leader? If so, you might be interested in joining our newly forming Leadership Development Class of 2024. Our meetings will cover all the above and more.

Temple Dor Dorim has run leadership classes each year starting a couple of years after its inception. We have found that strong leadership among our congregants has provided the foundation for our success over the years.

Obligation? The only obligation is to commit to 5-6 meetings that will be held monthly from December to possibly May. Each meeting will be on a Tuesday evening from 7:30 - 9:00 pm at the Temple. You will have the opportunity to interact with and get to know some current Temple Board members, Rabbi Bloch, Executive Director David Pasternack and the Temple staff. It's a great opportunity to broaden your experience with Temple Dor Dorim and have a say in "our" future endeavors and development.

Interested, have a few questions? Feel free to contact me at iriskauff@aol.com.

Thank you,

Iris Kauffman
Leadership Development Chair

Legacy Society Message

The Temple Dor Dorim Legacy Society wishes you a joyful Sukkot!

October 2023 begins with a series of holidays and festivals, one after another! Sukkot, Shemini Atzeret and Simchat Torah. We join together in our sukkah and say the blessing over the four kinds of species, a palm branch (lulav), two willows (aravot), three myrtles (hadassim) and one citron (etrog). We eat together, sing and dance.

One of the themes of Sukkot is that the 4 different species, which we hold together, represents the many kinds of Jews in the world, all joined together to thank God for God's blessings upon us, our children and grandchildren. Our Legacy Society at TDD also has joined together during this past year to support our Temple, sponsor events, and programs, and make sure that our Temple Dor Dorim family will grow and prosper over the coming years! In recognition of our efforts, our TDD Legacy Society has been recognized by the Harold Grinspoon Foundation and Jewish Federation of Broward County with a grant of $8,700 to continue our activities in support of our Temple!

A well-deserved thank you to all of our Legacy Society members who participated this past year - you all made this happen, together! We invite all the members of the Dor Dorim family to join with us as we look forward to a new year of events and programs in 5784.

If you would like more information about how you can join the Temple Dor Dorim Legacy Society, please contact Robert Ennis or Steve Schwartz (rennismd@gmail.com or sms73266@gmail.com).

Thank you,

Kristallnacht: Finding Strength and Inspiration through Reflection and Learning

Don't Miss this Exclusive Virtual Event for Members of Congregations Participating in ADL's Kulanu Program

Join Kulanu congregations from across North America for a virtual learning session and text study marking Kristallnacht, featuring Rabbi David Wolpe, ADL's Rabbinic Fellow. This session will reflect on the events of Kristallnacht through the lens of Jewish thought leaders and foundational texts, offering hope in the face of rising antisemitism and hate today.

Kristallnacht, the night of the broken glass, occurred November 9-10, 1938, when mobs took to the streets of Germany and Austria, committing a wave of violent attacks against the Jewish community including the burning of synagogues, Torah scrolls and holy books, the desecration of Jewish cemeteries and schools and the murder of almost 100 Jews.

As ADL's Rabbinic Fellow, Rabbi David Wolpe serves as a thought leader within the organization, advising on interfaith and intergroup affairs, and sharing his thoughts and reflections with the community at large. Rabbi Wolpe, who has authored eight books, is the Max Webb Emeritus Rabbi of Sinai Temple in Los Angeles and was named the most influential Rabbi in America by Newsweek.

I recommend reading this book, perhaps for one very simple reason: it provides hope to our society and without embarrassment, shows that determination and faith in self are values found deep within each of us." ~ Rabbi Norman Lipson
